(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

2.18 Objections

When making an objection counsel should:

- a. Only state the legal ground for the objection unless the court permits further comment.
- b. Address the court, and not opposing counsel or the witness.

CHAPTER 3. SETTING CIVIL CASES FOR TRIAL AND FOR PRETRIAL AND MANDATORY SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES

3.1 Authority of Court Executive Regarding Settings

The setting of cases for trial and for pretrial and mandatory settlement conferences is done by the presiding judge who has delegated initial authority in these matters to the court executive officer.

When matters are assigned for trial by the court executive officer they will be assigned to the available department.

This chapter shall not apply to actions brought pursuant to the Economic Litigation Act. (CCP 90 - 100).

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

3.2 No At Issue Memorandum - Civil Cases (ACT)

No at issue memorandum will be accepted for filing by the court except in unlawful detainer actions.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

3.3 Setting Cases for Trial

- a. Pursuant to rule repealed July 1, 2002 and 375, California Rules of Court, all cases shall be set for trial without a trial setting conference. Trial dates will be selected by the court executive officer who will consider the nature of the case, the Case Management Statement, the attorneys' availability calendar and the condition of the court's calendar, in an effort to select a trial date which presents no calendar conflict for any attorney who will try the case. The place of trial will be selected by the court after consideration of the convenience of the witnesses and parties as well as the availability of courtrooms. The actual setting of the case for trial will be done by a Notice of the Court.
- b. Unlawful detainer actions shall be set pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1170.5.

3.4 Requests for Changes in Trial Dates

Since trial dates are selected in a manner designed to assure that there will be no calendar conflict for any lawyer who will try the case, and this process involves the application of considerable time, effort and expense by court staff, normally no informal requests for a change in trial date will be accommodated. All requests for a change in trial date must conform to section 3.5.

All motions to vacate a scheduled trial, all motions to reschedule a trial, together with all declarations relating to such motion, shall be served upon each client of the attorney filing such document, in addition to all of the other persons required by law to be served, or have a client signed acknowledgment of the nature and effect of the motion.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

3.5 Stipulations Regarding Calendared Matters

Stipulations to vacate a matter that has been calendared or for a change of a date for a trial or other matter that has been calendared by the court are joint requests by the stipulating parties that a date be changed. The originally calendared date will not automatically be changed. The request will not ordinarily be considered by the court unless the stipulation contains a factual basis for the request and either shows proof of service of the stipulation upon the client of each party to the stipulation, or a client signed acknowledgment of the nature and effect of the stipulation. If the stipulation is that the matter be continued to a specific date, the stipulation must aver that the court executive officer has approved the availability of the proposed date.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

CHAPTER 4. ACCELERATED CIVIL TRIAL RULES

4.1 Objectives

It is the policy of the court in accordance with the Trial Court Delay Reduction Act to bring civil actions to disposition by settlement or other means as expeditiously as possible and within reasonable guidelines established by the court. The court should enforce these rules consistent with the principle that any elapsed time, other than reasonably required for pleadings, investigation, discovery and court events, is unacceptable and should be eliminated. (Cal. Standards Jud. Admin., § 2.)

(Amended effective 1/1/03; adopted effective 1/1/99.)

4.2 ACT Rules

a. All general civil cases shall be subject to the Accelerated Civil Trial (ACT) Rules set forth in this chapter and the applicable provisions of the California Rules of Court.

b. As used in this chapter “general civil case” means all civil cases except:

Probate, guardianship, conservatorship, family law (including proceedings under the Family Law Act, Uniform Parentage Act, and Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act; freedom from parental custody and control; proceedings and adoption proceedings), juvenile court proceedings, unlawful detainer proceedings and “other civil petitions” as defined by the judicial Branch Statistical Information Data Collection Standards. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 207(b).)

c. To allow for the arbitration of claims, the ACT rules do not apply to a case designated by the court as an uninsured motorist case until 180 days after designation. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 207(c).)

(Amended effective 1/1/03; adopted effective 1/1/99.)

4.3 Disposition

All general civil cases shall be classified as Plan 1 cases unless the court, on its own order or on noticed motion, reclassifies a case as a Plan 2 or 3 case or exempts a case from ACT rules pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 209(d). All cases should be tried or otherwise disposed of within the following time limits measured from the date on which the action was first filed:

Class 1 cases	Twelve months
Class 2 cases	Eighteen months
Class 3 cases	Twenty-four months

The classification in cases is intended to meet the criteria established by the Judicial Council of California, Standards of Judicial Administration 2.1. These standards provide for concluding ninety percent of all cases in one year, ninety-eight percent within eighteen months and one hundred percent within twenty-four months of the filing of the complaint.

(Amended effective 1/1/03; adopted effective 1/1/99.)

4.4 Service of Process / Filing of Responsive Pleadings

- a. Applicability: This rule applies to the service of pleadings in general civil cases except for unlawful detainer actions, proceedings under the Family Code, and other proceedings for which different service requirements are prescribed by law. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 201.7(a).)
- b. Service of Complaint: The complaint, summons and Notice of Case Management Conference (see ACT Rule, rule 4.5(a).) must be served on all named defendants and proofs of service on those defendants must be filed within 60 days after the filing of the complaint. When the complaint is amended to add a defendant, the added defendant must be served and the corresponding proof of service must be filed within 30 days after the filing of the amended complaint. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 201.7(b).)
- c. Service of cross-complaint: A cross-complaint against a party who has appeared in the action must be accompanied by proof of service of the cross-complaint at the time it is filed. If the cross-complaint adds new parties, the cross-complaint must be served on all parties and the proof of service on the new parties must be filed within 30 days of the filing of the cross-complaint. No cross complaint may be filed by a defendant after the date that defendant's answer had been filed without leave of the court granted upon noticed motion and a hearing. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 201.7(b); Code Civ. Proc. § 428.5.)
- d. Timing of Responsive Pleadings: The parties may stipulate without leave of the court to a single 15 day extension beyond the 30 day time period prescribed for the response after service of the initial complaint. Any further extension shall require the filing of a request for extension of time to respond which sets forth a factual basis as to why a responsive pleading cannot, with due diligence, be filed. Upon filing the request for extension, the court may: (1) grant an extension of time for the filing of a response to a specified date; (2) deny the request; or, (3) set and conduct a hearing to set a date for compliance with this rule. In the event the court denies the request for extension, the court will set a date for the filing of a response. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 201.7(d).)

- e. Modification of Timing; Order Extending Time: the court, on its own motion or on application, may extend or otherwise modify the times provided in subsections (b) through (d). An application for a court order extending the time for serving a party must be filed before the time for service has elapsed. The application must be accompanied by a declaration showing why service has not been effected, documenting the efforts that have been made to effect service and specifying the date by which service is proposed to be effected. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 201.7(e).)
- f. Due Diligence Statement: The plaintiff and/or cross-complainant shall file a due diligence statement promptly upon service and the filing of answers by all defendants and/or cross-complainants and identified fictitiously named defendants and/or cross-defendants. The statement shall be filed no later than 60 days after the filing of the complaint or cross-complaint.
- g. Failure to Serve: Unless the court has granted an order extending the time to serve a complaint or cross-complaint, the failure to serve and file pleadings as required under the ACT rules may result in an Order to Show Cause re Contempt being issued as to why monetary and other sanctions should not be imposed. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 201.7(f).)
- h. Request for Entry of Default: If a responsive pleading is not filed within the time limits specified in the Act Rules and no extension of time has been granted, within 10 days after the time for service has elapsed the plaintiff or cross-complainant must file a request for entry of default. Failure to timely file the request may result in the issuance of an Order to Show Cause re Contempt being issued as to why sanctions should not be imposed. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 201.7(g).)
- i. Default Judgment: When a default is entered, the party who requested the entry of the default must obtain a default judgment against the defaulting party within 45 days after the entry of the default, unless the court has granted an extension of time. Failure to obtain the default judgment against a defaulting party or to request an extension of time to apply for a default judgment may result in an Order to Show Cause re Contempt being issued as to why sanctions should not be imposed. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 201.7(h).)
- j. Order to Show Cause re Contempt: When the court issues an Order to Show Cause re contempt under the ACT Rules, responsive papers to the Order must be served and filed no less than 5 calendar days before the hearing. The responsive papers shall be either (1) those documents necessary to establish compliance with the identified ACT Rule or (2) a compliance statement explaining the reason for the failure to comply with identified ACT Rule and a proposed schedule the action required for full compliance. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 201.7(l).)

4.5 Case Management

- a. Notice of Case management Conference: At the time of filing of all general civil cases, the clerk shall immediately assign a date for the initial case management conference which shall be approximately 150 days after the filing of the case. The plaintiff shall thereafter prepare a Notice of Case Management Conference, in the form set forth, and shall cause the Notice to be served on all defendants at the same time and in the same manner as the summons and complaint or petition and shall file a proof of service in compliance with ACT Rule, rule 4.4(b).
- b. Case Management Statement: No later than 30 calendar days before the date set for the initial Case Management Conference, all parties must meet and confer, in person or by telephone, to consider each of the issues identified in California Rules of Court, rule 212 (e) & (f). No later than 15 calendar days before the date set for the initial Case Management Conference, each party must file and serve on all other parties a Case Management Statement on the form approved by the California Judicial Council (form CM-110). (See Appendix to this Chapter 4) All applicable items on the form must be completed. In lieu of each party filing a separate Case Management Statement, any two or more parties may file a joint statement under this rule. Each party shall attach to its Case Management Statement the trial attorney's availability calendar for the fourth, fifth and sixth months following the month in which the Statement is filed. (See Appendix to this Chapter 4) (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 212 (e), (f) & (g))
- c. Case Management Conference: Counsel for each party and each self-represented party must appear personally unless allowed by the court to appear by telephone pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 298 (c) (2), must be familiar with the case and prepared to discuss and commit to the party's position on each of the issues listed in California Rules of Court, rule 212 (e) & (f). At its option, the court may issue a written waiver of personal attendance at the Case Management Conference and issue a Case Management Order based solely on the Case Management Statements. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 212(b).)

- d. Case Management Order: Following the Case Management Conference, the court shall issue a written Case Management Order setting a schedule for subsequent proceedings and otherwise providing for the management of the case. The order may include a directive on any matter listed in California Rules of Court, rule 212(i). The order issued after the Case Management Conference or review will control the subsequent course of the action or proceeding unless it is modified by a subsequent order. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 212 (i) & (j).)

(Amended effective 1/1/03; adopted effective 1/1/99.)

4.6 Designation Statement

All actions subject to these rules shall be deemed to be a Class 1 cases unless otherwise requested in a designation statement by counsel or any party appearing without counsel and thereafter ordered by the court.

- a. Each party who requests than an action be designated other than a Class 1 case shall file a designation statement at any time after the action is commenced but in no event later than the time of filing the Case Management Statement.
- b. The designation statement shall set forth all information required therein describing the nature and complexity of the substantive and procedural issues, discovery, law and motion and any other factors effecting designation of the case.
- c. After a designation statement has been filed all other parties who have appeared in the action may file within ten (10) days of service of the statement a Designation Statement. If a party fails to file a designation statement in response to that of another party, the court will assume that the party not filing agrees with the designation statements filed by other parties.
- d. The designation statement shall be reviewed by the court or its staff. In the event of disagreement between the parties as to the designation of the action the court shall either issue its order designating the class of the case or it may order a hearing on the question of designation after which it shall issue its order designating the class of the case.
- e. The court may at any time, on motion of a party, or on its own motion, modify the designation of any action.

4.7 Short Cause Civil Cases

Short cause matters are those actions wherein a jury trial has not been requested and the trial time is estimated at five (5) hours or less. All other civil cases are long cause cases. The court may order, upon the stipulation of all parties or the court's own motion, that a case is a short cause case exempted from the requirements of case management review and set the case for trial. The court may, despite the short cause nature of the case, order that the case be subject to a settlement conference, pretrial conference, or alternative dispute resolution. Further, the court may, upon review of the case management conference questionnaire, determine that a case is a short cause case and may vacate the order for the case management conference and set the matter directly for trial on the short cause calendar. If a short cause case is not completely tried within five (5) hours, the judge may declare a mistrial or, in the judge's discretion, may complete the trial. In the event of a mistrial, the case will be treated as a long cause case and must promptly be set either for a new trial or for a case management conference. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 214)

To obtain an earlier or short cause trial date the parties are encouraged to submit an appropriate form of stipulation and order together with a completed case management conference questionnaire at any other time after the case is at issue.

- c. Conditional Settlement: If the settlement agreement conditions the dismissal upon the satisfactory completion of specified terms, the notice of conditional settlement must specify the date by which the dismissal is to be filed. Failure to make such request shall be grounds for denial of a discovery motion. Informal requests should be presented to opposing counsel in writing.

Motions for discovery shall be focused upon specific items which remain in dispute after presentation of informal requests. “Boilerplate” discovery motions are disfavored. Counsel shall meet and confer before the hearing of any discovery motion in a good faith effort to resolve or narrow the disputed issues.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

10.6 Transcripts of Taped Statements

The proponent of any sound recording or taped statement shall cause accurate transcription of the recording to be made in a typewritten format. Any transcription shall be lodged with the court and served upon opposing counsel before the commencement of trial in accordance with statutory discovery procedure.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

10.7 Pre-Preliminary Hearing Conference

For all felony charges a pre-preliminary hearing conference date shall be set. At the conference all counsel who will participate in the preliminary hearing shall be present. Counsel are expected to have discussed the case among themselves and exchanged offers with a view toward resolving the matter prior to preliminary hearing. Should the case not settle at the pre-preliminary hearing conference, the prosecution shall provide the court with the name of the attorney who will conduct the preliminary hearing on behalf of the people and shall provide a reliable time estimate.

Both counsel for the people and for the defendant shall inform the court of any special needs, such as interpreters or appointment of counsel for witnesses, that are needed for the preliminary hearing.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

10.8 Preliminary Hearing

At the discretion of the court, and as permitted by law, the preliminary hearing shall also constitute a violation of probation hearing for any trailing probation matter.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

10.9 Trial Setting

- a. Misdemeanor. After a meaningful attempt is made to resolve the case at arraignment trial dates shall be set within the statutory time limits unless time is waived. If time is waived counsel are encouraged to discuss mutually acceptable trial dates.
- b. Felony. Upon entry of the defendant's plea, the court shall set dates for trial and pretrial conference. The trial shall be set within 60 (sixty) days from the filing of the information unless the court lengthens the time on a showing of good cause as prescribed in Penal Code section 1050, or upon a time waiver personally entered by the defendant and with the concurrence of the prosecution.

Unless otherwise ordered, all pretrial motions shall be noticed in writing with a date obtained from the court clerk. Counsel shall provide the clerk with a description of, and a reliable time estimate for, any anticipated motions. All papers pertaining to motions shall be served and filed in compliance with California Rules of Court, rule 4.11.

(Amended effective 7/1/04; adopted effective 1/1/99.)

10.10 Pretrial Conference

At the time the defendant's not guilty plea is entered, the case shall be set for pretrial conference at the discretion of the court. Normally, pretrial conferences are set two weeks before the trial date, and if not settled on that date, are continued one week for further pretrial and readiness conference.

Before the conference, counsel shall confer among themselves, their clients and any alleged victims or law enforcement personnel in a good faith effort to achieve resolution of the case without trial.

At that conference counsel for the people and for the defendant will be expected to advise the court either that (a) the defendant desires to change his/her plea to one that is acceptable to the people, or that (b) there is no possibility of a disposition of the case without trial.

The conference will be attended by those lawyers who will try the case. If the case does not settle, counsel shall inform the court of the time estimate for trial and any special requirements that would affect the conduct of the trial.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

10.11 Trial Conduct

The conduct of the trial shall be left to the discretion of the trial judge. However, counsel will be required to comply with standard courtroom protocol and dress appropriately.

As in any hearing counsel should not interrupt opposing counsel except to lodge an appropriate objection. All objections and comments must be addressed to the court, and not to opposing counsel. Permission must be sought to approach any witness on the stand. Counsel will refrain from making derogatory remarks about opposing counsel, and will otherwise be expected to handle himself/herself in a professional manner at all times.

Trial counsel shall give the trial precedence over other pending matters in other courts.

Use of the in limine conference prior to jury selection shall not be used as a further pretrial conference, except that pleas may be taken during said hearing on dispositions already negotiated between the parties.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

10.12 Sentencing

When a case is called for sentencing, defense counsel shall announce whether (a) defendant has received the probation report in a timely fashion; (b) defendant waives arraignment for sentence; and (c) there is any legal reason why judgment should not be pronounced.

Absent a showing of good cause, the court will not consider letters or other written submission which are not served on opposing counsel and lodged with the court, to be placed in defendant's file by 2:30 p.m. on the day before the hearing.

A defendant should expect to be remanded to the custody at the time set for sentencing where (a) defendant has failed to make or keep an appointment to be interviewed by the probation officer; or (b) the court imposes a prison sentence.

CHAPTER 11. TELEPHONIC APPEARANCE (Civil and Criminal) and FACSIMILE FILING

11.1 Telephonic Appearance

a. Program Overview

1. The Mendocino County Superior Court provides a procedure for telephonic appearance by attorneys in appropriate cases and situations as an alternative to personal appearance. CourtCall, LLC is the provider of services and support relative to the telephonic appearance procedure. All telephonic appearances are fully voluntary and no attorney is required to make a telephonic appearance or use the services of CourtCall.
2. Hearings are conducted in open court or in private, as the court may from time to time direct. Attorneys making telephonic appearances shall call a designated toll free teleconference number a few minutes before the calendar is scheduled to be called to check in with the clerk. After checking in attorneys shall remain on the courts speakerphone. Attorneys not participating telephonically appear in person.
3. Telephonic appearances are scheduled, in writing, in advance, by counsel serving on all other counsel and pro-se parties and delivering (via fax, mail, or personal delivery) to CourtCall, LLC, not less than five court days prior to the hearing date, a request for telephonic appearance form and by paying a fee of $55 for each CourtCall appearance.

b. Participation in Telephonic Appearances

1. Matters Not Suitable for Telephonic Appearance

- a. Subject to the court's right to amend this list, the following matters are currently deemed unsuitable for telephonic appearances.

Civil

1. Mandatory settlement conferences;
2. Ex parte applications;
3. Hearings at which oral testimony may be presented;
4. Hearings in which oral argument is anticipated to exceed 15 minutes;
5. Judgment debtor examinations.

Criminal

1. Preliminary hearings;
 2. Trials;
 3. Any other evidentiary hearings.
- b. The court reserves the right, at any time, to reject any request for telephonic appearance. When the court rejects a request, it shall order a refund of deposited telephonic appearance fees and notify CourtCall, LLC.
 - c. The court shall also reserve the right to halt the telephonic hearing on any matter and order the attorneys to personally appear at a later date and time, in which case no refund is permitted.
 - d. If a matter is continued prior to the actual hearing date, the prior filing of a request for telephonic appearance form shall remain valid for the continued date of the hearing provided the attorney notifies CourtCall, in writing, of the continuance. There are no refunds for matters which go "off calendar".
 - e. Existing rules and procedures regarding the making of the record by a court reporter or electronic device or obtaining a transcript after the hearing shall apply to hearings at which telephonic appearances are made.

2. Attorneys

- a. Attorneys electing to make a telephonic appearance shall serve on all other parties in the case the request for telephonic appearance form, fax a copy of the form to CourtCall, LLC and pay the telephonic appearance fee in the method prescribed, not less than five court days before the hearing date.
- b. When the request for telephonic appearance is made at the same time as the filing of the hearing document or response, in addition to the request for telephonic appearance form, the words "Telephonic Appearance Requested" shall be printed below the department, date, and time of the hearing on the first page of the papers filed with the court.

3. Appearance Procedure

- a. An attorney making a telephonic appearance shall:
 - 1. Eliminate to the greatest extent possible all ambient noise from the attorney's location;
 - 2. Be required, during the attorney's appearance, to speak directly into a telephone hand set;
 - 3. Not call in via pay phones, cellular or cordless telephone devices or via a personal computer.
- b. An attorney making a telephonic appearance shall call the court's designated toll free teleconference line approximately 5 minutes prior to the scheduled hearing time and check-in with the clerk. An attorney calling after the check-in period shall be considered to be late for the hearing and shall be treated by the court in the same manner as if the attorney had personally appeared late for the hearing.
- c. An attorney appearing telephonically shall state his or her name for the record each time the attorney speaks and shall participate in the appearance with the same degree of courtesy and courtroom etiquette as is required for a personal appearance. An attorney shall not utilize the "hold" button, as it is not within the policy of the court to wait for an attorney to rejoin the line.

d. Criminal Proceedings: All of the above rules apply in criminal proceedings except to the extent modified by this subdivision (d). Telephonic appearances are specifically deemed appropriate for bail reduction hearings, motions and sentencing hearings.

1. Request for Telephonic Hearing Form. In order to participate in a telephonic hearing, defense counsel shall have first faxed to CourtCall, no less than five court days prior to the scheduled arraignment or hearing date, a request for telephonic appearance form provided by CourtCall, unless counsel has been retained less than five days prior to the arraignment date, or in the event of scheduling conflicts or emergencies. In such a case, counsel may submit the form and payment to CourtCall within the five day period prior to the hearing date, but in no case later than 12:00 p.m., on the court day prior to the hearing. The submission of the form shall be accompanied by a payment of the appropriate fee, by check or credit card.

2. In Custody Cases. In all misdemeanor and felony cases in which the defendant is in custody, and counsel wishes to make a telephonic appearance he or she must first obtain the approval of the defendant. By filing the request for telephonic appearance, counsel shall be deemed by the court to have obtained approval of the client. Counsel's appearance will then proceed as in cases where the defendant is not in custody.

In all custody cases in which the defendant will be present in a holding area or in the courtroom when the case is called, the defendant will be permitted to hear his attorney's telephonic request for a continuance, and at the time will be asked whether or not he/she joins in the request. If the client does not agree to the requested continuance, then counsel will be ordered to appear in court as soon as possible.

- 3. Discovery. It is understood that counsel will normally obtain a copy of the complaint, police report, and other discovery materials from the district attorney at the time of an arraignment. In all cases in which counsel has appeared at the arraignment by way of a telephonic appearance, it will be the responsibility of counsel to obtain discovery from the district attorney as soon as possible. In any event, counsel shall make arrangements to obtain all discovery from the district attorney prior to the next scheduled court appearance. A further continuance of the arraignment will not be permitted on the sole ground that counsel did not obtain discovery by the time of the arraignment, if said discovery was available.
- 4. Failure to Appear. In any case in which a defendant, through his/her counsel, has requested a telephonic appearance and the attorney fails to appear (either telephonically or in person) the matter will be treated as a nonappearance.
- 5. Felony Cases. Telephonic appearances shall be available in all felony cases where the defendant expressly agrees in advance that counsel can appear telephonically. Telephonic appearances in felony cases shall occur only in those cases where the defendant has previously assured counsel that he or she can and will be present in court at least ten minutes prior to the time of the hearing. In those cases where the defendant is present, the court will first inquire as to whether the defendant agrees to the telephonic appearance of counsel. If the defendant so consents, the arraignment or motion to continue shall be heard. If the defendant does not consent, then defense counsel shall be ordered to appear immediately in court, or to make arrangements for other counsel to appear on his or her behalf. In those cases where defense counsel has submitted a request for a telephonic appearance and the defendant has not appeared in court at the time of the scheduled hearing the matter will be treated as a nonappearance.

6. Announcement of Readiness for Trial; Telephonic Hearing Request.

Once counsel for all parties have announced ready for trial, as a result of the lack of an available trial court on that date, a case may trail to a new date. In such instances it is common for the case to trail to a new date within the approved trailing period. The court acknowledges that in such circumstances the only purpose served by defense counsel appearing in court is to announce ready for trial and to be ordered to return to court on a specific date within the trailing period. Therefore, where it is anticipated by counsel that after announcing ready for trial his case will be trailed to a new date in the same court, counsel may request a telephonic appearance where counsel intends to announce ready for trial and expects to trail to a new date selected by the court.

7. Cases Involving More Than One Defendant.

Telephonic appearances are permitted in cases involving more than one defendant. In such cases counsel shall, whenever possible, first notify all co-counsel of his intention to make a telephonic appearance and secure their agreement. All counsel should agree on the next court date, and so inform the court at the time of the hearing. Counsel making the telephonic appearance should also request that co-counsel either appear in court at the time of the hearing, or make arrangements to stand in for co-counsel at that time. In all cases in which counsel has not secured the prior agreement of co-counsel, and such counsel are not present at the time of the court retains the discretion to order counsel to appear in person at an appropriate time when all counsel can appear.

In cases in which counsel is unaware of the existence of co-defendants (such as an initial arraignment), counsel will assume the risk that the court may inform counsel of the existence of other defendants, and either require counsel to appear personally, or have another attorney or co-counsel appear on his or her behalf at second call.

11.2 Facsimile Filing

This rule is adopted in accordance with the provisions of rule 2001, et seq., of the California Rules of Court, and applies to civil, probate, and family law proceedings, with the exception that wills, codicils, bonds or undertakings shall not be filed by facsimile transmission. A document that is to be issued by the court (including, but not limit to, a summons, letters of administration, letters testamentary, and a writ of execution) shall not be sent to the court by facsimile transmission.

a. Definitions. As used in this rule, unless the context requires otherwise:

1. "Facsimile transmission" means the transmission of a copy of a document by a system that encodes a document into electrical signals, transmits such electrical signals over a telephone line, and reconstructs the signals to print a duplicate of the original document at the receiving end.
2. "File" or "filing" means the facsimile transmission of a document to a fax filing agency for filing with the court.
3. "Fax" is an abbreviation for "facsimile" and refers, as indicated by the context, to facsimile transmission or to a document so transmitted.
4. "Fax filing agency" means an entity that receives documents by fax for processing and filing with the trial courts. An attorney or law office may act as a fax filing agency, for the attorney, the law office or others.

b. Compliance with California Rules of Court, rules 201 and 501, and the Local Rules of Court

1. A fax document shall comply with rule 201 and 501 of the California Rules of Court and all applicable rules of this court.
2. An exhibit that exceeds 8 1/2 by 11 inches shall be reduced to 8 1/2 by 11 inches before it is transmitted. The court may require the party to file the original of an exhibit that has been filed by fax.
3. Any document which contains an exhibit which cannot be accurately transmitted by fax shall not be filed by fax.

c. No Direct Transmission for Filing. Facsimile produced documents may not be transmitted for filing directly to any fax machine owned or operated by the court or the clerk's office. In order to be filed with the court, all facsimile produced documents must be present for filing at the filing window or by mail. All requested fees must be paid at the time of filing.

d. Quality of Facsimile Produced Documents. In order to be filed with the court, all facsimile produced documents must be produced on plain 8# bond paper by laser printer or better quality technique, and in terms of legibility, quality of paper and permanence must be of equal or better quality than non facsimile produced documents.

e. Fax Filing Agency. A party may transmit a document by fax to a fax filing agency for filing with the trial courts. The fax filing agency acts as the agent of the filing party and not as an agent of the court.

f. Duties of the Fax Filing Agency. A fax filing agency that receives documents for filing shall:

1. Prepare the documents so that the documents comply with rule 201 and 501 of the California Rules of Court and any other requirements for filing with this court.
2. Take the documents to the court.
3. Place the words "Filed by fax by," followed by the name of the agency, at the bottom of the last page of the document.

4. File the document with the court.

5. Pay any applicable filing fee.

g. Requirements for Advance Arrangements. A fax filing agency shall not be required to accept papers for filing unless appropriate arrangements for payment of filing fees and service charges have been made by the transmitting agency before the papers are transmitted to the fax filing agency.

h. Confidentiality. A fax filing agency shall keep all documents transmitted to it confidential except as provided in these rules.

i. Certification. California Rules of Court, rule 2005(e) “A fax filing agency, by filing a document with the court, certifies that it has complied with these rules and that the document filed is the full and unadulterated facsimile produced document received by it. No additional certification shall be required of the agency.”

j. Multiple Facsimile Transmissions. In the event that a facsimile produced document is transmitted for the purpose of signatures by multiple parties or for any other purpose which does not result in the modification of the facsimile produced document originally transmitted, a certification, as required in subdivision (i) of this rule, must be provided by each person receiving the facsimile transmission.

k. Signatures.

1. A party who files a signed document by fax pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1012.5 and these rules represents that the original physically signed document is in his or her possession or control.

2. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, including Evidence Code sections 255 and 260, a signature produced by facsimile transmission will be treated as an original.

3. Within fifteen (15) days after service of a signed facsimile filing, any other party may serve a demand for production of the original physically signed document. The demand shall not be filed with the court. Failure to serve a demand is a waiver of the right to demand production of the physically signed original.

4. If a demand for production of the original physically signed document is made, the filing party shall arrange a meeting at which the original physically signed document can be examined.

I. Notation of Facsimile Filing. Each facsimile filing shall include the words “by fax” or “by facsimile” on the first page, beginning at the left margin of the line immediately below the name and address of the attorney or party. If a party is represented by an attorney, the attorney shall also include his or her facsimile machine telephone number, designated as a “fax” number, as part of the attorney’s name, address, State Bar membership number, and telephone number on the document.

- a. The petition shall contain a full disclosure of all information, which has any bearing upon the reasonableness of the compromise and settlement, such as the sums, if any, to be paid to the other claimants in the same case.
- b. In any case in which the court orders the sum to be received by the minor to be deposited in a financial institution, the order shall contain the further order that "A certified or endorsed copy of this order shall be delivered to the manager of said financial institution to be deposited, and that there shall be a receipt of said financial institution filed with the clerk of the department in which the compromise was approved, acknowledging receipt of both the sum deposited and said order."

The monies are not the subject of escheat."
- d. - a. It is the duty and the policy of the court to protect the funds of minors and not to allow withdrawals except in very urgent and unusual situations. It is the duty of parents of minors to provide for their support and education. Funds belonging to minors should not ordinarily be used for such purposes. The court will never allow withdrawals for the benefit of parents or any person other than the minor.

- b. Requests for withdrawal of funds deposited for minors and incompetent persons will be allowed only upon filing a verified petition, or ex parte application, which shall include a showing of the amounts previously withdrawn, the balance on deposit at the time of filing said petition, a justification for said withdrawal (including the reasons why the parents or parent are unable to provide the needed funds) and the attorney's fees, if any, requested incident thereto.
- c. The order shall fix such fees, and no other fees shall be charged. In the absence of unusual circumstances, where the attorney for the petitioner was allowed fees at the time of settlement, it is the policy of the court to consider this an incidental service for which payment has been included in the original allowance.
- d. Any order authorizing the withdrawal of funds for the purpose of transferring said funds from one financial institution to another shall contain the language set forth in section 14.1(b) of local rules and shall further provide that the draft of the institution from which the funds are withdrawn shall be payable to the financial institution to which the funds are to be transferred for deposit in such a blocked account. A receipt from the financial institution to which the funds are transferred containing the information and language set forth in section 14.1(c) of the local rules shall be filed with the court.
- e. Applications for withdrawal of sums shall be filed and heard in the probate department.

CHAPTER 15. FAMILY LAW RULES

15.1 Law and Motion

- a. Heard. All non-Title IV-D actions, including but not limited to Matters orders to show cause, motions, and other requests for relief under the Family Law Act, Uniform Parentage Act, Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction actions and other domestic relations matters shall be heard on the family law and motion calendar of the superior court. All Title IV-D actions shall be calendared to be heard by the Child Support Commissioner.
- b. Meet and Confer Requirement. Prior to a hearing on the law and motion and order to show cause calendar and the short cause calendar, counsel shall be required to meet and confer with the opposing party or his or her counsel in an attempt in good faith to resolve all issues. In the event the parties are not actually present, they shall be immediately available to their counsel for authority to stipulate to the resolution of any and all issues. All relevant documents shall be exchanged between the parties prior to or at the time of said conference. In the circumstance where both parties have previously appeared, the exchange of documents should normally take place in conjunction with the filing of the pleadings or moving papers as required by these rules, absent good cause to the contrary.

Failure to so meet and confer may result in the matter being continued or dropped from the calendar, or the rejection of documents that have not previously been exchanged, or other appropriate sanctions within the discretion of the court.

- c. Income and Expense Declaration. No case shall be heard unless current Income and Expense Declarations in the form prescribed by rule 1285.50 of the California Rules of Court have been completed and filed by each side. A current declaration means a declaration filed within thirty (30) days of the date of the scheduled hearing. In the event there is a recent Income and Expense Declaration on file, but not within the thirty (30) day provision, and there are no changes in that declaration, a party may file a declaration under penalty of perjury ratifying said Income and Expense Declaration.

All blanks in the Income and Expense Declaration shall be filled in with the appropriate figures or the designation of n/a. The Income and Expense Declaration will be considered as received in evidence at the hearing subject to amendment and cross examination. If current documentation has not previously been provided, no less than five (5) court days before the scheduled hearing, the following documents shall be exchanged between the parties:

1. Current wage statements representing a consecutive period of at least two (2) months;
2. Most recent Federal income tax returns and W-2 statement;
3. If the individual is self-employed, the most recent profit and loss statement of the business or other accounting to evidence the net monthly disposable income available to said person from the business.

d. Court Hearing re: Income and Expense Information. It is the intent of these local rules that both sides shall be fully informed prior to the hearing of the documents supporting the figures in the Income and Expense Declaration. Direct examination on matters covered by the Income and Expense Declaration will be heard only under exceptional circumstances within the court's discretion and normally will be limited to testimony regarding unusual items not adequately explained in the Income and Expense Declaration.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

15.5 Law And Motion and Order to Show Cause Calendar; Short Cause Setting

- a. Moving Papers to be Filed within 15 Days of Hearing. All original motions and orders to show cause, together with all supporting documents, including the moving party's Income and Expense Declaration, shall be filed and served at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date set for hearing unless an order shortening time has been issued.
- b. Responsive Pleadings and Points and Authorities. Any responsive pleadings, including the responding party's Income and Expense Declaration and points and authorities, if applicable, shall be served and filed no less than five (5) court days prior to the date of hearing. Unless good cause is shown, failure to comply will result in refusal by the court to consider such papers.
- c. Matters Limited to a Maximum of Thirty (30) Minutes. The matters to be heard on the family law and motion and order to show cause calendar shall be limited to a maximum of thirty (30) minutes time. Said thirty (30) minutes shall be divided up fifteen (15) minutes per side absent an agreement between the parties or counsel to the contrary. In the event a matter exceeds the allotted thirty (30) minutes duration, the court shall continue the matter to another law and motion calendar, set it for a short cause hearing, or drop it from the calendar. The court will expect counsel to give realistic and firm time estimates so that if a matter has the potential of exceeding thirty (30) minutes, counsel will set it for a short cause hearing as provided below.

d. Matters Exceeding Thirty (30) Minutes - Short Cause Calendar.

Matters on the family law and motion and order to show cause calendar which are estimated to exceed thirty (30) minutes, but less than two (2) hours, in duration shall be set for hearing on the short cause calendar. Following is the procedure for having such a matter placed on the short cause calendar:

1. If the moving party estimates that the matter will take more than thirty (30) minutes but less than two (2) hours, then the moving party shall file its request that the matter be placed on the short cause calendar together with the original moving papers, giving the reason and basis for the estimate that it will exceed thirty (30) minutes in duration.

Prior to filing its moving papers, the moving party shall obtain from the court clerk the next available short cause date and set the hearing for that date and time. The request for the short cause setting shall be served on the opposing party along with the other moving papers.

2. When the moving party has set a matter for hearing on the law and motion calendar and the opposing party anticipates that the hearing will take in excess of thirty (30) minutes, but less than two (2) hours, then the opposing party shall file, at least five (5) court days prior to the scheduled hearing, a request that the matter be placed on the next available short cause hearing date. The opposing party shall include the next available short cause hearing date in the request. In the event the opposing party is unable to file its request within the five (5) day deadline, the opposing party shall at the earliest opportunity notify the moving party of its intention to request the matter go to the short cause calendar.

3. Absent a stipulation between the parties, matters set for a law and motion calendar that are subsequently estimated to exceed the thirty (30) minute limitation shall remain on that law and motion calendar for the continuation or entry of temporary order pending the short cause hearing.

4. The court will expect parties and/or their counsel to exercise good faith in utilizing this procedure for short cause hearings. This includes realistic and binding time estimates on law and motion calendars so as not to exceed the thirty (30) minute limitation, as well as realistic time estimates for the short cause calendar. In the event the court determines that any party is intentionally under or over estimating the time in order to gain advantage or cause a delay, the court shall impose sanctions on that party and/or their attorney.

e. Temporary Support Orders

1. Duration of Temporary Support Orders. Unless otherwise specifically ordered, temporary orders for child support or spousal support shall remain in effect until the time of trial or subsequent order of the court.
2. Recipients of Public Assistance Benefits. If either or both parties are receiving public assistance benefits, then that party shall serve a copy of their moving or responsive pleadings upon the District Attorney, Family Support Division.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

15.3 Child and Spousal Support

- a. Temporary/Permanent Child Support. Temporary and permanent child support will be set pursuant to the provisions of California Family Code section 4000, et seq.
- b. Spousal Support. Spousal support shall be determined pursuant to California Family Code section 4300. et seq.
- c. Child and Spousal Support - Last Month or Last Year as Indicia of Net Disposable Income. In determining net disposable income, the court will normally look to current income - within the last month or so. The court will average income over several months of a year only when a party is seasonally employed, receives bonuses or commissions which cannot be predicted, or for some other reason current income is not a good indicator of income of the immediate future. Findings of fact are normally made against any party failing to document earnings by pay stubs or tax returns.

- d. Commencement Date of Payments. Unless the court orders otherwise, the commencement date for child support or spousal support payments shall be the date upon which the motion or other pleadings requesting such payment were filed. Any payment made by one party to the other for such purpose after the date such motion or pleading is filed shall be deducted from the sum ultimately ordered to be paid for such period. To make such determination, the sum ordered for the period shall be reduced by the sum actually paid for the period. If the result is a positive number, the person ordered to make the payment shall pay the sum forthwith. If the result is a negative figure, it will be credited against the sum owing by the obligor for the next period in which the obligor has a net sum owing. All such adjustments shall be due and payable upon the filing and serving of the order of support.

e. Costs of Visitation - Travel Expenses

1. Subject to paragraph (f) below, the cost of travel expenses for parental contact shall be shared equally;
2. If the income of the parties after payment of support (child and/or spousal) is substantially different, the court may adjust the above allocation to meet the parents' respective needs and ability to pay.

- f. Travel Expenses-Distant County or Out of State. The court may order one party to pay more than his/her share of travel expenses if that party caused the need for travel expenses by moving to a distant county or state.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

15.4 Ex Parte Orders

- a. Application for Ex Parte Order; Declaration. An ex parte order will be issued only if the application is accompanied by a declaration adequate to support its issuance. An ex parte order will not be issued unless one of the following conditions exist:

1. Adequate advance notice was given to the adverse party or their attorney of record so that party might oppose the application. Adequate advance notice if the adverse party or attorney of record is located within Mendocino County shall be defined as a minimum of 4 hours. Adequate advance notice to a party or attorney of record located out of the county shall be reasonable depending on the distance and time necessary to travel to the court;

2. It clearly appears in the declaration that giving notice would frustrate the purpose of the proposed order;
3. The applicant would suffer an irreparable injury before the adverse party could be heard in opposition; or,
4. It appears by declaration that no significant burden or inconvenience will result to the adverse party.

b. Order Excluding from Home. An application for an ex parte restraining order excluding either party from the family dwelling or the dwelling of the other must be supported by a declaration showing immediate and serious harm, specifying in detail the time and place of any past act or acts of alleged misconduct and stating why an order shortening time would not be practicable.

c. Order Changing Custody of Minor. As provided by Family Code section 3064, the court will not make an ex parte order granting or modifying custody unless there has been a showing of immediate harm to the child or immediate risk that the child will be removed from the State of California. In addition, the supporting declaration shall set forth, in brief, the circumstances under which the child will be placed pending hearing.

d. Time of Ex Parte Hearing. To obtain a date and time for an ex parte hearing call the court clerk's office. (Subd. (d) amended effective 7/1/04)

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

15.5 Child Custody Evaluations

- a. The following Local Rules of Court are designed to implement California Rules of Court, Rule 1257.3.
- b. The court shall not permit a peremptory challenge of a court ordered evaluator. Any challenge for cause must be presented by noticed motion to the court within five (5) days of the appointment of the evaluator.

- c. Any court ordered evaluator may petition the court for permission to withdraw from any particular case with notice of said request to be given to all parties of record.
- d. If a party or his or her attorney has any complaint regarding a court ordered evaluator, he or she should bring that complaint to the attention of the court by means of writing a letter to the court or through the filing of a motion. Whether the complaint is made by letter or by motion, a copy of said letter or motion must be served by mail on all parties. The court, at its discretion, will forward the complaint to the evaluator.
- e. No party or attorney for a party shall initiate contact with a court appointed evaluator, orally or in writing, to discuss the merits of the case without giving the other party notice and an opportunity to be present or to receive a copy of a written communication. Nothing in this Rule shall prohibit the court appointed evaluator from contacting either party or attorney.
- f. Upon ordering an evaluation, the court shall specify under what code section the evaluator has been appointed and the purpose and the scope of the evaluation.
- g. Any court ordered evaluator shall adhere to the uniform standards of practice for court ordered child custody evaluations contained in California Rules of Court, Rule 1257.3.
- h. The court shall, at its sole discretion, determine and allocate between the parties of any fees or costs or any court ordered evaluation taking all relevant evidence into consideration.

(Adopted effective 1/1/03.)

15.6 Parent's Workshop Required When Children Involved in Action

In an action for a dissolution of marriage or legal separation where there are minor children involved in such action, and in any action to determine paternity or any action for modification of custody and visitation, each parent is required to attend a parent's workshop.

The petitioner/plaintiff should sign up to attend the workshop in conjunction with the filing of his or her initial papers. The respondent/defendant should sign up to attend the workshop as soon as practicable after being served with the papers. It is not necessary that the parents attend the same session or class.

Local Rules for the Mendocino Superior Court – Family Law Rules

Each parent shall contact the agency designated by the court to obtain an appointment for a parent's workshop, attend the workshop and pay all fees associated therewith. The court will require proof of satisfactory completion of the workshop. The completion or the failure to complete the workshop will be a factor that will be considered by the court in any further custody/visitation hearings.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

15.7 Attorney's Fees and Costs Award Request

In all cases where attorney's fees and costs are requested subsequent to the services rendered, counsel shall submit a declaration itemizing the fees and costs and identify the specific legal authority for the award. When fees and costs are requested pendente lite, counsel shall submit a declaration describing the anticipated services and/or cost items with reasonable particularity and shall identify the specific legal authority for the award.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

15.8 Mandatory Settlement Conferences Prior to Dissolution Trial

- a. Time And Place Of Settlement Conferences. The courts shall include in the Notice of Trial, the time and place of the mandatory settlement conference and the dates that settlement conference statements are to be lodged. Unless otherwise designated or agreed upon by all parties and counsel, the settlement conference will be held in the courthouse at Ukiah. A settlement conference will not be re-set by the parties or continued without the express approval of the settlement conference official. The parties shall notify the court clerk of all changes in settlement conference dates.

The court will attempt, to the extent possible, to schedule settlement conferences involving parties and counsel from the Mendocino Coastal areas somewhere on the coast.

- b. Sanctions for Failure to Lodge Timely and Sufficient Settlement Conference Statement. It is the court's intention to require substantial compliance by all parties and their counsel in the timely filing of settlement conference statements, which include all items, listed in (d) below applicable in the particular case. Failure to substantially comply with the requirements herein, shall result in sanctions, continuance of the trial date or such other action as the court deems just under the circumstances.

- c. Contents of Settlement Conference Statement. Each party's settlement conference statement shall contain the following:

1. Complete List of Each Item of Property of Value in Excess of $1,000

- a. Separate Property. List each item of separate property, the date it was acquired, the basis upon which it is claimed as separate rather than community property, the current market value, the nature, extent, and terms of payment of any encumbrance against the property, the manner in which title thereto is presently vested, and the record title data.
- b. Community Property. List each item of community property, the date it was acquired, the current market value, the nature, extent, and terms of payment of any encumbrance against the property, the manner in which title thereto is presently vested, and the record title data.
- c. Funds Held by Others. To the extent that either separate property or community property consists of funds held by others, such as insurance policies, pensions, profit sharing, or other trust or retirement funds, the statement shall fully identify the policy or fund, including policy, serial or account numbers, the present values and basis for calculation, and any special terms or conditions known to the party imposed upon the withdrawal of such funds. If any loans exist against any of these funds, the details regarding those loans should be set forth.
- d. Tracing and Reimbursement. If a segregation of community property and separate property interests in a single asset is to be an issue in the case, the statement shall set forth in detail, with dates, value, and dollar amounts, the transactions relevant to the tracing issue as well as the basis for computation or proration.

For reimbursement claims under Family Code section 2640, the statement shall set forth the community asset from which reimbursement is claimed, and the basis upon which it is claimed separate funds were invested into the asset, including the amounts, dates, and whether or not there are any writings between the parties evidencing an intent to waive the right of reimbursement.

- e. Claim for Reimbursement. The statement shall include any claims for reimbursement under Family Code section 2641, to wit, community contributions to education or training, with specific dates, amounts, and nature of the contributions.

2. Current Obligations

- a. Separately list all debts and obligations of the spouses which are liabilities of the community and, so far as known, debts and obligations which are alleged to be the separate liabilities of the respective spouses. Specify the identity of the creditor, the purpose for which the debt was incurred, the date upon which the debt was incurred, the balance currently due thereon, the terms of payment and the security, if any, held by the creditor.
- b. Any party who is claiming reimbursement for payments of obligations since the date of separation shall specify creditor, the purpose for which the debt was incurred, including which party has possession of the asset, if any, for which the debt was incurred, as well as the dates and amounts of any payments for which reimbursement is sought.

- 3. Current Income and Expenses. Specify and set forth current income and expenses by completing and filing an Income and Expense declaration in the form prescribed by rule 1285.50 of the California Rules of Court. Previously filed Income and Expense declarations shall not be considered as compliance with this requirement if any facts have changed.
- 4. Proposal for Property Division. Prepare a proposal for equal division of community property and liabilities on the judicial council forms or other format, which provides the same information as the judicial forms.
- 5. Custody, Visitation and Support. Specify each party's proposal as to child custody and visitation and as to amount of child support and amount and duration of spousal support.

6. Appraisals of Real or Personal Property. Each party may attach to the statement a copy of an appraisal of any real or personal property by a qualified appraiser. Within five (5) days after receipt of the settlement conference statement or fifteen (15) days before trial, whichever is later, if no written demand is made to cross examine the appraiser, the appraisal shall be deemed to have been stipulated as admissible in evidence without foundation and without the appearance of the appraiser.

7. Valuation of Certain Assets

a. Motor Vehicles. If there is a dispute as to the value of a motor vehicle, the value will usually be fixed at the mid-point between the high and low value shown in Kelley's Blue Book, unless the circumstances show that a different valuation should be made.

b. Unusual Assets. When there are assets of an unusual nature such as oriental rugs, antiques, unusual jewelry, works of art, and handcrafted items, the parties prior to trial should endeavor to agree and stipulate to the use of a qualified appraiser for any such items. Preferably, this should be with the understanding that the report of the appraiser will be admitted into evidence without the necessity of the appraiser personally appearing at trial.

c. Valuing Furniture, Furnishings and Tools. With regard to normal furniture, furnishings and tools, the age of the items is much more important than initial purchase price or replacement cost. The test is the fair market value of the items as of the date of trial. Used furniture has a low value on the open market. If the parties are unable to agree on a division and valuation of the furniture, one option available to the court shall be the liquidation of all assets and the equal division of the proceeds from said liquidation.

d. Personal Property Worth Less Than $1,000. In the event there are items of personal property worth less than $1,000 that are not listed in the settlement conference statement but that are in dispute as to either value or disposition, each party shall have prepared for the court and opposing counsel no later than the time set for trial a list of said items of personal property including the valuation and proposed division.

8. Conduct of the Settlement Conference. Counsel, together with their clients, shall be present at the scheduled settlement conference absent good cause. The parties may resolve any and/or all issues at the settlement conference. For example, the parties may agree to issues of valuation of certain assets without agreeing on the actual division of said assets.

a. Good Faith Attempts at Settlement; Attorney's Fees.

It is the goal of the court as well as the settlement conference officials that a sincere attempt will be made by all parties and counsel to reach a resolution of the issues at the settlement conference. To the extent there are issues that remain unresolved at the conclusion, the settlement conference official may at his or her discretion note in a sealed envelope the unresolved issue and his or her recommendation to the parties for its resolution. The settlement conference official shall notify the parties during the conference of his or her intention to note a recommendation in a sealed envelope. Thereafter, if the case proceeds to trial, at the conclusion of the trial, the trial judge may consider the recommendations of the settlement conference official in conjunction with an award of attorney's fees pursuant to Family Code section 271.

b. Pretrial Conference. To the extent that the parties and the settlement conference official agree that a pretrial conference would be of assistance, such a conference shall be recommended/scheduled by the settlement conference official at the conclusion of said conference.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

15.9 Family Law Trial Rules

a. Exchange of Documentary Evidence to be Used at Trial. No less than seven (7) calendar days prior to the date set for trial, each party shall provide the opposing party or, if represented, the opposing counsel with a list of all documents and/or documentary evidence intended to be used at trial. The list shall indicate which documents have been previously provided. Copies of all documents which have not been previously provided shall be attached to the list. In the event that the documents to be used are voluminous, either side may notify the other no less than fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the date set for trial and forthwith give the opposing party the opportunity to inspect and copy the documents. Absent a showing of good cause, documentary evidence, which has not been exchanged as set forth above, shall not be offered or admitted at trial.

- b. Trial Briefs and Motions In Limine. Unless otherwise ordered by the settlement conference official or by other court order, all parties, not less than seven (7) calendar days before the date first set for trial, must serve and file all motions in limine, briefs on all significant disputed issues of laws, including foreseeable procedural and evidentiary issues setting forth briefly the party's position and the supporting arguments and authorities. All such papers filed in a tardy manner shall only be considered by the trial judge upon good cause shown and within his or her discretion, upon imposition of sanctions.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

15.10 Family Law Facilitator

- a. Policy. It is the policy of the court to encourage all unrepresented parties to meet with the family law facilitator before appearing in court.
- b. Services. The family law facilitator shall provide the following services: 1) providing educational materials to parents concerning the process of establishing parentage and establishing, modifying, and enforcing child and spousal support; 2) distributing necessary court forms and voluntary declarations of paternity; 3) providing assistance in completing forms; 4) preparing support schedules based upon statutory guidelines; and 5) providing referrals to the district attorney, family court services, and other community agencies and resources that provide services for parents and children.
- c. Additional Services for Litigants and Clerk. At the direction of the court the family law facilitator shall provide the following additional services: 1) Meeting with litigants to mediate issues of child support, spousal support, and maintenance of health insurance, subject to Family Code section 10012. Actions in which one or both of the parties are unrepresented by counsel shall have priority. 2) Drafting stipulations to include all issues agreed to by the parties, which may include issues other than those specified in section 10003. 3) If the parties are unable to resolve issues with the assistance of the family law facilitator, prior to or at the hearing, and at the request of the court, the family law facilitator shall review the paperwork, examine documents, prepare support schedules, and advise the judge whether or not the matter is ready to proceed. 4) Assist the clerk in maintaining records. 5) When so directed by the court prepare formal orders consistent with the court's announced order in cases where both parties are unrepresented. 6) Serving as a special master in proceedings and making findings to the court unless he or she has served as a mediator in that case.

- d. Additional Services to the Court and Community. When the additional services to the litigants and the clerk have been completed, then at the direction of the court the family law facilitator may also provide the following services: 1) Assist the court with research and any other responsibilities which will enable the court to be more responsive to the litigants' needs. 2) Develop programs for bar and community outreach through day and evening programs, videotapes, and other innovative means that will assist unrepresented and financially disadvantaged litigants in gaining meaningful access to family court.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

15.11 Miscellaneous Rules

- a. Approval of Orders. Absent good cause, all orders after hearing or by oral stipulation in court shall be approved as to form by opposing counsel. In the event opposing counsel has not returned an original form of order submitted to them within ten (10) calendar days of mailing, then the party submitting the order may submit a new original to the court with a declaration regarding said mailing and lack of response from opposing counsel. Failure of counsel to return such a proposed order or to communicate meaningfully with opposing counsel concerning the proposed order may be the basis for the court imposing sanctions.
- b. Continuance Fees. A continuance fee will be charged for continuances in all family law matters, with the following three exceptions:
1. In law and motion matters, for each motion or order to show cause, one continuance (from the original date calendared) will be allowed at no charge;
 2. There will be no charge for continuances of law and motion matters if the reason for the continuance is ongoing mediation;

3. When a case has been set for hearing or trial on the short cause or long cause calendar, there will be no charge for a one-time continuance if agreed upon by the parties and if the court is notified in writing at least 15 calendar days before the date set for the hearing.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

CHAPTER 16. JUVENILE COURT RULES

These local rules are intended to supplement state statutes which are principally found in the Welfare and Institutions Code. In addition, they supplement the California Rules of Court relating to juvenile court matters (see Cal. Rules of Court, rules 1400-1497).

There are two sections to these local rules. The first includes general provisions which apply to all juvenile court matters. The second applies to dependency proceedings (Welfare and Institutions Code section 300, et cetera).

To the extent that any of these rules conflict with either state statute or California Rules of Court, the local rule is of no legal effect.

These rules cover juvenile court law, but not juvenile traffic hearings or traffic hearing appeals.

For the authority for the creation of these rules see California Rules of Court, rule 1400(b).

These rules adopt the rule of construction and the severability of clauses in California Rules of Court, rule 1400(c) & (d).

(Amended effective 1/1/03; adopted effective 1/1/99.)

16.1 Judicial Administration

There shall be one presiding judge of the juvenile court. The presiding judge shall be selected by the presiding judge of the superior court.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

16.2 Noticed Motions and Requests to Place Matter on Calendar

No request to place a matter on calendar, except a request to set a detention hearing, will be accepted by the clerk or placed on calendar, unless the request is submitted in writing not less than 48 hours prior to the requested hearing date. Any request submitted less than 48 hours prior to the requested hearing date, other than a request for a detention hearing, shall be accompanied by an order shortening time. (Amended effective 7/1/04; adopted effective 1/1/99.)

16.3 Pre-hearing Discovery

a. Timely Disclosure of Informal Discovery. Pre-hearing discovery shall be conducted informally. Except as protected by privilege, all relevant material shall be disclosed in a timely fashion to all parties to the litigation, In re Jose Z. (1970) 3 Cal.3d 797, California Rules of Court, rule 1620. (Subd. (a) amended effective 7/1/04.)

b. Discovery Motions (Subd. (b) amended effective 7/1/04.)

Any noticed motion shall state the relevancy and materiality of the information sought and the reasons why informal discovery was not adequate to secure that information. The motion shall be served on all parties at least five (5) judicial days before the hearing date. The date for the hearing shall be obtained from the clerk of the department hearing juvenile matters.

Any responsive papers shall be filed and served two (2) judicial days prior to the hearing.

2. Civil Discovery. There shall be no depositions, interrogatories, subpoenas of juvenile records or other similar types of civil discovery without approval of a judge of the juvenile court upon noticed motion. (Subd. (b)(2) amended effective 7/1/04.)

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

Chapter 6.3. Pre-hearing Discovery, subd. (b)(3) repealed effective 7/1/04; adopted effective 1/1/99.

16.4 Ex Parte Orders

a. Application for Ex Parte Order; Declaration. An ex parte order will be issued only if the application is accompanied by a declaration adequate to support its issuance. Ordinarily, an ex parte order will not be issued unless one of the following conditions exist: (Subd. (a) amended effective 7/1/04.)

1. Notice was given to all counsel, social workers, probation officers, child advocates, and parents who are not represented by counsel so that party might oppose the application; (Subd. (a) (1) amended effective 7/1/04.)

2. It clearly appears in the declaration that giving notice would frustrate the purpose of the proposed order.

3. The applicant or the child would suffer an irreparable injury before the other parties could be heard in opposition; or,

4. It appears by declaration that no significant burden or inconvenience will result to the adverse parties.

b. The party requesting the ex parte order may apply to the clerk in the juvenile department where the matter would normally be heard for a time to submit the request.

c. The party requesting the ex parte orders must inform the judge that notice has been given by submitting a "Declaration Re Notice of Ex Parte Application". The Declaration shall state the names of the persons to whom notice was given, the manner of giving notice, that the persons were given a copy of the application or notice of its content, and the time that the matter would be submitted to the court, and if notice was not given to any person entitled thereto, the reason that such notice was not given. The original declaration and accompanying Application for Order must be submitted to the court clerk in the juvenile department where the matter would normally be heard.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

16.10 Juvenile and Family Courts Exchange of Information

This rule addresses the exchange of information between Family Court Mediator (FCM) and Probation Department Juvenile Division staff (PD) and the Department of Social Services, Child Protective Services (CPS). The disclosure of information concerning children and their parents by any of these agencies is generally prohibited by law. Nevertheless, a limited exchange of information about children or parents between these agencies in certain circumstances will serve the best interests of the child who is before the court.

The court hereby finds that the public interest in avoiding duplication of effort by the courts and by the investigative agencies serving the juvenile and family courts and the value of having relevant information gathered by a court agency outweighs the confidentiality interests reflected in Penal Code sections 11167 and 11167.5 and Welfare and Institutions Code sections 827 and 10850 et seq., and therefore good cause exists for the following rule:

a. Abuse/Neglect. The family court mediator as a "mandate reporter," may orally disclose to probation department or child protective services (CPS) staff a statement made by the child or the child's parents, guardians or custodians which might bear upon the issue of child abuse or neglect being investigated, or any other information bearing upon a CPS investigator who are investigating a suspected child abuse or neglect situation. (Subd. (a) amended effective 7/1/04.)

b. Custody/Visitation Disputes. Probation department or CPS staff may orally disclose to the family court mediator who is mediating or investigating a child custody/visitation dispute the following information: (Subd. (b) amended effective 7/1/04.)

1. Whether the minor is or has been the subject of a child abuse or neglect investigation and the status of that investigation.

Local Rules for the Mendocino Superior Court – Juvenile Rules

2. The recommendations made or anticipated to be made to the court by the probation department or child protective services staff.
3. Any juvenile court orders or petitions in existence which might bear upon the child custody/visitation dispute being investigated.
4. Any statements made by the child, the child's parents, guardians or custodians which might bear upon the child custody/visitation dispute being investigated.
5. The details of any report of suspected abuse of the child, except the identity of any original reporting party who has expressed a desire to remain anonymous.

c. Conditions. Any disclosure authorized by this order shall be subject to the following conditions:

1. The agency receiving the request shall first establish to its satisfaction that the inquiring party is in fact a member of an agency designated above.
2. All information shall be provided orally.
3. If an agency desires written documentation, it shall make written application for a court order releasing that documentation.
4. The information gathered shall be used exclusively in the investigation being conducted and the subsequent court proceedings, and shall not be repeated to anyone not a party to those proceedings without court order.

Nothing in this order is intended to limit any disclosure of information by any agency which is otherwise required or permitted by law or by other court orders.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

18.3 Counter Arraignments

Unless the courtesy notice states that an arraignment in court is required, the defendant may complete an arraignment form at the traffic counter and schedule a trial date with the clerk. Prior to the appearance date, the defendant may post bail and declare his/her intention to plead not guilty. The clerk shall then set the matter for trial.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

18.4 Continuance Policy

On or before a due date, the clerk has authority to grant a continuance of not more than sixty (60) calendar days for any matter except a court trial and traffic school sign-up. After a case has been continued up to the sixty (60) days, any request for a continuance must be made in open court.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

18.5 Trial Procedures

Traffic court trials shall be set according to the schedule set forth in the applicable General Order or as otherwise directed by the court.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

18.6 Appeals

If judgment is rendered against the defendant, the defendant has thirty(30) calendar days from the entry of judgment to file an appeal. It is the defendant's responsibility to comply with California Rules of Court, rules 180–189. Failure to timely request or file the record on appeal may result in dismissal of the appeal.

(Amended effective 7/1/04; adopted effective 1/1/99.)

18.7 Traffic School

The court may accept attendance at a certified traffic school as grounds for dismissal of a minor traffic infraction.

In addition to the eligibility criteria established pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 851, traffic school may be authorized by the clerk without further referral to a judicial officer if the defendant has not attended traffic school within the last eighteen (18) months and the speed is violation of 25 miles or less over the posted speed limit.

An administrative fee shall be collected as a prerequisite to attendance or authorization of traffic school.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

18.8 Trial by Declaration

A defendant may elect to have a trial by declaration of any charged infraction. Pursuant to Vehicle Code section 40902, subdivision (b), if the defendant elects to have a trial by written declaration, the defendant shall, at the time of submitting that declaration, submit bail in the amount established in the uniform traffic penalty schedule pursuant to section 40310. If the defendant is found not guilty or if the charges are otherwise dismissed, the amount of the bail shall be promptly refunded to the defendant.

(Amended effective 7/1/04; adopted effective 1/1/99.)

CHAPTER 19. FEES OF ATTORNEYS, INVESTIGATORS AND EXPERTS

19.1 Attorney's Fees in Cases Involving Claims of Minors, Insane or Incompetent Persons

Counsel fees in excess of the following schedule ordinarily will not be considered reasonable in actions compromised under section 372 of the Code of Civil Procedure or section 3500 of the Probate Code:

- a. Recovery two weeks or earlier prior to trial date first assigned case: 25% of net amount received.
- b. Recovery later than two weeks prior to trial date first assigned case or during trial: 33-1/3% of net amount recovered.
- c. Recovery after filing of respondent's brief on appeal or after affirmance: 40% of net amount recovered.

In computing fees the court will require parents claiming reimbursement for medical expenses, etc., to pay their proportionate share of the counsel fees except in cases of hardship. Reasonable costs incurred that were paid by counsel and are itemized and accompanied by appropriate vouchers or other supporting evidence will be allowed except they will not be included in the amount of the recovery on which fees are computed.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

19.2 Attorney's Fees in Actions on Promissory Notes, Contracts Providing for Payment of Attorney's Fees and Foreclosures; Attorney's Fee Schedule

The following attorney's fees shall, under normal circumstances, be awarded in actions on promissory notes and contracts providing for the payment of attorney fees and foreclosures;

a. Default Action on a Note or Contract (exclusive of costs):

- 25% of the first $ 1,000 with a minimum of $150
- 20% of the next $ 4,000
- 15% of the next $ 5,000
- 10% of the next $10,000
- 2% of the amount over $50,000.

In an action upon contract providing for attorney's fees, the clerk shall include in the Local Rules for the Mendocino Superior Court – Fees: Attorneys, Investigators & Experts judgment attorney's fees in accordance with this schedule, not to exceed the amount paid for.

- b. Contested Action on Note or Contract. The same amount as computed under subparagraph (a) increased by such reasonable compensation computed on an hourly or per day basis for any additional research, general preparation, trial or other services as may be allowed by the court.
- c. Foreclosure of Mortgage or Deed of Trust. The same amount as computed under subparagraph (a) or (b) increased by 10%.
- d. Foreclosure of Assessment or Bond Lien Relating to a Public Improvement. The same amount as computed under subdivision (a) or (b), except that the minimum fee shall be $75 in an action involving one assessment or bond, and an additional $20 for each additional assessment or bond being foreclosed in the same action.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

19.3 Attorney's Fees in Guardianship and Conservatorship Proceedings

Attorneys for guardians or conservators are compensated according to the work actually performed. The size of the estate corpus and the responsibility assumed by the attorney are only two of the factors considered in arriving at the value of the services. Application for attorney's fees must be accompanied by a complete statement of the facts upon which the application is based, including a detailed statement of the amount of time devoted to each component of the services and must specify the amount requested for each item of service.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

19.4 Attorney's Fees and Representative's Fees for Extraordinary Services in Probate Proceedings or in Any Matter Defined in the Probate Code for Which a Statutory Fee is Not Established

- a. In evaluating the justification for an award of fees for extraordinary services or other services referred to herein, the court will take into consideration the statutory fee and consider whether it constitutes adequate compensation for all of the services rendered by the attorney or representative.

- b. Notwithstanding the principles stated in the foregoing paragraph (a)

extraordinary compensation will be paid when requested for the following services:

1. Preparation of fiduciary tax returns and resolution of problems arising from the audit of such returns. Payments made to accountants or other tax preparers for such services and charged to the estate must be set forth in the request for extraordinary compensation and subtracted from the amount requested.
 2. Sales of property without a broker.
- c. Subject to the principles stated in the foregoing paragraph (a), compensation for extraordinary services will be considered in the following situations:
1. Litigation on behalf of the estate;
 2. Operating or selling a business;
 3. Sales of estate property;
 4. Performance of any act resulting in extraordinary benefit to the estate or requiring an extraordinary expenditure of time or display of confidence.
- d. Application for fees for extraordinary services will not be considered unless the title of the petition and the notice of hearing include a reference to the request. The prayer shall set forth the specific amount of the request.
- e. An application for compensation for extraordinary services or any other services for which a fee is requested other than ordinary services shall specify:
1. Date rendered;
 2. Services rendered in detail;
 3. Hours spent on ordinary services;
 4. Hours spent on extraordinary services;
 5. Hourly rate;
 6. Total amount requested.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

19.5 Fees of Guardians and Conservators

Among factors to be considered in determining the compensation allowable to guardians and conservators are:

- a. The gross income of the estate;
- b. The success or failure of administration of the guardian or conservator;
- c. Any unusual skill or experience which the guardian or conservator in question may have brought to his work;
- d. The fidelity or disloyalty displayed by the guardian or conservator;
- e. The amount of risk and responsibility assumed by the guardian or conservator in carrying out such duties;
- f. The time consumed by the guardian or conservator in carrying out such duties;
- g. The custom in the community as to charges exacted by trust companies and banks;
- h. The character of the work done in the course of administration whether routine or involving skill and judgment;
- i. Any estimate which the guardian or conservator has given of the value of the guardian or conservator's own services (Estate of Nazro, (1971) 15 Cal.App.3d 218).

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

19.6 Notices

Before any order for the payment of fees is made there shall be filed with the court proof that all parties entitled to notice have been given notice of filing the petition for payment of fees and a copy of the petition requesting such fees.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

19.7 Fees and Commission Must Be Fixed by Court Prior to Payment

There is no authority for the payment of any fees or commissions in decedent's estates, guardianships or conservatorships in advance of a court order authorizing the same. Representatives will be surcharged interest to the date of an order authorizing such payment unless in the case of a decedent's estate the written consent of the residuary beneficiaries is filed with the court and the amounts paid are reasonable and proper.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

19.8 Court Appointed Attorneys: Standards of Experience and Allowable Fees and Expenses

The following procedure shall be used in fixing fees allowable to attorneys appointed by the superior court to represent individuals who are unable to employ counsel and who cannot be represented by the public defender or the appointment conflicts firms or attorneys who are employed by the public defender or appointment conflicts firm, but who are to be separately paid in accordance with this rule.

a. Application for Fees

1. The court shall allow attorney's fees and costs for services rendered and expenditures made by counsel properly appointed in criminal, juvenile or other matters while such matters are pending before the superior court. Travel expenses must be pre-approved by the court. (Subd. (a)(1) amended effective 7/1/04.)
2. Application for the payment of such fees and costs in minimal or delinquency proceedings shall ordinarily be made at the time of the final superior court disposition of the proceeding in which court appointed counsel served, but in no event shall such application be presented more than 30 days thereafter. Pretrial interim application for fees may be made in cases involving the death penalty or life without the possibility of parole, or in exceptionally complex or lengthy cases upon special application; provided, however, that no pretrial interim authorization for fees shall exceed the sum of $3,000 per month, plus expenses, for lead counsel and $1,500 per month, plus expenses, for associate counsel, such funding limitations to be imposed as an average for the claim period. (Subd. (a)(2) amended effective 7/1/04.)
3. Attorneys in dependency cases, shall bill monthly for fees and costs, and in any event not later than 10 days from the end of the month. (Subd. (a)(3) amended effective 7/1/04.)

4. Application for fees and costs shall be made by written declaration in a form to be approved by this court, itemizing the legal services rendered, the amount of time devoted to the case and the expenses incurred.
5. Application for fees and costs shall be submitted to the court executive officer or designee for subsequent approval by the department in which the case has been pending. (Subd. (a)(5) amended effective 7/1/04.)
6. The court will allow a reasonable fee in consideration of the nature and complexity of the case and the degree of skill and effort required of counsel.

b. Categories of Charged Crimes or Other Matters

1. Class 1: All homicides, whether capital or non-capital, and all offenses having a maximum sentence of life or life without possibility of parole, or in the discretion of the court, an aggregate state prison sentence of 30 years or more.
2. Class 2: All crimes for which the upper term of punishment is five years or more, but less than Class 1.
3. Class 3: All adult felonies and felonies charged pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code section 602.
4. Class 4: All civil matters, all other felonies and misdemeanors and juvenile matters where the petition seeks jurisdiction under Welfare and Institutions Code sections 601 and 602.

c. Minimum Experience Requirements for Appointed Attorneys

1. Class 1: Certified criminal law specialist or equivalent.
2. Class 2: Those who, as chief counsel, have handled twenty crimes charged as felonies, five of which were submitted to a jury for a decision: five of which included contested superior court proceedings such as Penal Code section 1538.5 or Penal Code section 995 motions; and the remainder of which proceeded to disposition. A maximum of ten juvenile cases charged as felonies may be counted toward the requirement of the twenty cases.
3. Class 3: One year experience as attorney; criminal defense experience.

4. Class 4: All attorneys.

5. Upon a proper showing, a person may be eligible for a class by virtue of showing of equivalent experience as determined by the presiding judge.

d. Fee Schedule. All attorneys, as a condition to becoming eligible for appointments, shall agree to handle all cases to which they are appointed on a fee basis. The court will adopt a fee schedule separate and apart from the court rules. Said schedule will be reviewed and adjusted as necessary annually.

1. Regardless of the fee schedule set forth, if an attorney believes that the case is of such a special or unusual nature that it is not possible to render services in accord with the maximum fee schedule, he/she must file a declaration declaring the reasons for that conclusion. Upon such written application, a reasonable fee in excess of the limits set forth in this schedule may be established by the judge presiding in the case.
2. Except as set forth in paragraph (4) below, attorneys shall not receive extra compensation for normal operating expenses such as mileage, photocopies and long distance telephone calls; extra compensation will be allowed for such expenses as fees for investigators and expert witnesses in accordance with these rules.
3. In all cases, the final fees allowed shall be determined by reference to the nature and complexity of the case and the degree of skill and effort required in handling the matter. Fee claims will be adjusted in accordance with this standard.
4. In the event that an attorney appointed by this court must appear in court of another county on a case transferred from this court, the attorney shall be entitled to reasonable travel and living expenses necessarily incurred in connection with his/her appearance in the court of the other county. Unless the appointed attorney obtains permission in writing from the presiding judge in advance, the attorney shall travel by private automobile and shall be reimbursed for necessary mileage at the rate allowed by the County of Mendocino at the time of the travel. In no event shall the attorney seek payment of fees for the time spent by the attorney while traveling. Living expenses for each such attorney will be allowed at the rate established by the State Board of Control Rules.

Any request for reimbursement of travel or living expenses shall be made by written declaration and submitted to the court executive officer who shall review such requests and recommend payment in appropriate cases to the presiding judge. All requests for such reimbursement shall include a complete inventory of costs and expenses with all applicable receipts attached.

(Amended effective 7/1/99, adopted effective 1/1/99.)

19.9 Investigation Fees and Expenses

- a. License. Each investigator shall provide the court executive officer with a true copy of his or her most recent license and a list of all employees who are authorized to work, there under.
- b. Work Performed. Each billing shall clearly identify what work was performed by what persons. If work was performed by more than one person, some symbol shall be used to identify the hours actually worked and the tasks actually performed by each individual.
- c. Time to Submit Billing. The investigator shall not submit a billing until his or her work on the case has been concluded unless time worked covers more than one fiscal year; but, in no event shall such billing be presented more than 30 days thereafter. However, in unusual cases involving many hours of investigative work, the court may authorize interim billings, provided that such authorization is obtained in advance.

Where the court authorizes interim billings, each bill shall identify the period of time that it covers and shall be identified by a serial number (e.g. "Interim Billing No. 3").

- d. Order of Appointment; Further Authorization. Each order appointing an investigator shall provide a blank space for the judge to insert a dollar limit for the services to be provided. When this authorization or "cap" is exhausted, further authorization must be obtained from the court before billings in excess of the original amount will be paid. This authorization must be obtained in advance. When an attorney or investigator requests an order authorizing additional investigative time, the request shall be accompanied by a detailed statement of the work performed up to that time. This detailed statement will not be treated as a billing unless the court has granted authorization for interim billing.
- e. Meals; Lodging. The court will not reimburse for meals or lodging unless advance approval has been obtained.
- f. Application for Fees and Expenses. An application for investigation fees and expenses shall be made in writing by the assigned counsel and not the investigator as follows:

1. To the judge of the department to which the case has been assigned;
2. To the judge of the department to which the matter has been referred pursuant to Penal Code section 987.9;
3. In all other cases to the presiding judge.

g. Amount of Fees.

1. Cases Other Than Capital or Life Sentence Cases. The initial application shall not exceed the sum of $3,000. Additional applications may be made upon a showing that further investigation is necessary in an amount not to exceed $1,500 per application.
2. Capital and Life Sentence Cases. Application for fees in capital cases shall be governed by the provisions of Penal Code section 987.9 and is upon a declaration by the appointed counsel. The initial application for capital and life sentence cases shall not exceed $5,000. Additional application may be made upon a showing that further investigation is necessary in an amount not to exceed $2,500 per application.
3. All Cases. In no event shall the court grant fees or expenses not reasonably justified by the nature of the case as supported by written declaration by the assigned counsel. This rule will be strictly enforced. The declaration shall specify the nature and purpose of the proposed investigation and shall contain an estimate of the fees and expenses involved. The court will consider for payment long distance telephone calls and reasonable time spent in writing reports. Unusual or extraordinary requests shall be justified in detail. The court will not authorize payment without specific prior approval for:
 - a. Transportation services;
 - b. Clerical work;
 - c. Courtroom observation;
 - d. Defendant services, i.e., haircuts, shopping, mail services, etc.;

All billings shall contain a detailed and specific statement of services actually rendered. Time shall be billed in increments of 1/10 hour (See sample billing, Local Rules for the Mendocino Superior Court – Fees: Attorneys, Investigators & Experts Appendix A). The following types of services shall be separately stated:

- Travel time;
- Time spent interviewing witnesses;
- Time spent in conference with attorneys;
- Time spent reviewing reports or other documents;
- Time spent in measuring, diagramming or photographing scenes, locations, persons and objects;
- Time spent researching public records or in obtaining documents or other information.

Ordinarily, the court will not approve payment of time spent in locating a defendant in a criminal case, a minor in a 602 juvenile case or a parent in a 300 juvenile matter. It is the duty of such persons to remain in contact with their attorneys and investigators.

Double billing for travel and similar expenses is prohibited (for example, an investigator traveling to a location to work on more than one case; the investigator shall bill only once for travel and related expenses).

The court will not approve payment of excessive time spent in conference with attorneys, fellow investigators or with the defendant. The billing must set forth a detailed explanation of the need for such conference time before the court will consider payment.

An investigator who wishes to bill for time spent with an attorney in court must obtain approval of the court before spending such time in court. The court will not approve payment for time spent with an attorney in court, unless there has been such prior approval.

In all criminal and juvenile cases, investigators' billings will be treated as confidential, will be placed in sealed envelopes and will be made available only to the court and authorized staff.

The court will not appoint investigators employed by the same firm to represent multiple defendants in criminal cases or different parties in a single juvenile case due to the potential for conflicts of interest.

An investigator has the duty to disclose fully in writing any payment or other compensation received from any source other than the court for services rendered in connection with any case in which the investigator has been appointed.

h. Order for Payments. The order for investigation fees and expenses shall be in the form set forth in a form approved by this court. All orders for payment shall include in the caption an accumulative total of all payments to date. Subsequent orders shall not include any expenses prior to the last order submitted.

- i. Maximum Rates for Investigative Services. Claims for investigative services authorized pursuant to this rule shall be paid at a rate established by a general order of the court. General orders are on file in the office of the court executive officer.
- j. Submission of Claims. Claims for investigation fees and expenses shall be made on a form approved by the courts to which must be attached a copy of the court order awarding fees and a detailed accounting of all claimed fees and expenses.

The claim shall first be submitted to the court executive officer for approval.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

19.10 Non-psychiatric Expert Fees and Expenses

- a. Application for Expert Fees and Expenses. Application for non-psychiatric expert fees and expenses shall be made in writing as follows:
 - 1. To the judge of the department to which the case has been assigned;
 - 2. To the judge of the department to which the matters has been referred pursuant to Penal Code section 987.9;
 - 3. In all other cases to the presiding judge.
- b. Amount of Fees. In no event shall the court grant fees or expenses not reasonably justified by the nature of the case as supported by the written declaration. The written declaration shall specify the nature, purpose and materiality of the proposed expert services and shall contain an estimate of the fees and expenses involved including the proposed expert's hourly fees for court work and for courtroom testimony. The name of the expert to be retained and a brief statement of qualification shall also be included or attached. Unusual or extraordinary requests shall be justified in detail.
- c. Order for Fees and Expenses. The order for expert fees and expenses shall be on a form approved by this court.
- d. Maximum Rates for Expert Services and Testimony. Claims for expert services authorized pursuant to this rule shall not exceed the amounts approved by the court.

- e. Submission of Claims. Claims for expert fees and expenses shall be made on a form approved by this court to which must be attached a copy of the court order awarding fees and a detailed accounting of all claimed fees and expenses. The claim shall be submitted to the court executive officer for subsequent approval by the department which authorized the expenditure specified in paragraph (a) of this rule.
- Local Rules for the Mendocino Superior Court – Fees: Attorneys, Investigators & Experts

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

19.11 Claim for Payment

Court appointed attorneys, investigators and expert witnesses shall submit a County of Mendocino "Claim" form in order to receive payment for services rendered. Each person seeking payment must complete and submit a claim substantially in the form set forth in Appendix A to Rule 19.

- a. Order of Appointment by Court. Before payment may be processed, an endorsed copy of the order appointing the claimant must be attached to the claim form.
- b. Submission for Signature. Each claim for payment should be submitted to the Superior Court Accounting Department, who will submit the claim for signature to the judge who made the appointment. Once the judge signs the order statement, the claim will be processed by the court executive officer or designee.
(Subd. (b) amended effective 7/1/04.)
- c. Time Limit for Submitting Claims. Attorneys, investigators and expert witnesses appointed by the court shall file a claim for payment no more than thirty (30) days after rendering their services. Claims submitted beyond forty-five (45) days will require a separate declaration explaining to the court that the delay was unavoidable. Consistent failure to provide timely claims will be considered by the court in future appointments. Claims submitted forty-five (45) beyond a fiscal year will not be honored.
(Subd. (c) amended effective 7/1/04.)

A court reporter shall report the following court proceedings (including trial) when contested or uncontested:

- a. Civil jury and court trials.
- b. Felony criminal proceedings (including preliminary hearings, other pretrial motions, and court or jury trials).
- c. Juvenile proceedings.
- d. Any court proceeding when ordered by the court.
- e. Any other proceeding when a party requests a court reporter in accordance with rule 20.2 of the Local Rules.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

20.2 Requests for Court Reporter

In accordance with Government Code section 68086 and California Rules of Court, rule 891, when a party requests a court reporter and the reporter is not required by rule 20.1 of the Local Rules or by statute to report the court proceeding, such party shall provide and pay for a certified court reporter approved by the court.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

20.3 Reporter Fees - Civil Proceedings

All civil proceedings, including family law proceedings, of less than one hour in duration will be reported without costs to any party. A fee for reporting services shall be charged for all matters lasting more than one hour.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

20.4 List of Approved Interpreters

The court executive officer shall maintain for public examination a list of court approved interpreters and their particular languages. An interpreter will be approved for inclusion upon the list only after the interpreter's competency has been satisfactorily demonstrated to the court by such examination or other means as this court shall require.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

20.5 Requests for Interpreters; Deposits of Fees

In civil cases a party who requests an interpreter shall at least ten (10) court days before the date of trial or hearing notify the court executive officer in writing of such request and of the particular language needed and shall pay to the clerk of court one day's fee. Thereafter one day's fees shall be advanced to the interpreter before the commencement of each day's proceedings. Failure by a party to make such a written request to the court executive officer or to advance such fee to the clerk shall be deemed a withdrawal of the request and the court in its discretion may proceed without an interpreter or upon terms as may be just with an interpreter.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

20.6 Fee of Interpreters

Except as otherwise provided by order of the court the per diem fee for interpreters shall be the maximum amount allowable by statute at the time the interpreter services are provided.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)

20.7 Forfeiture of Fee Deposit

In a civil case in which a party requests an interpreter and thereafter withdraws such request, the party shall pay one day's fee to the interpreter unless; (1) the party notifies the court executive officer at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the date of trial or hearing that the services of the interpreter will not be required; or (2) the interpreter has a similar service to perform at that time in some other proceeding.

(Adopted effective 1/1/99.)
